Questions:

1. What is your understanding of the concept of original sin? How does that doctrine affect us as individuals and as a society today?

2. Does it change how you view the book of Genesis if you suspect the writers were incorporating Babylonian ideas about creation from the Enuma Elish? Why...or why not?

3. What do you believe about Hell? What forms that belief?

4. What stood out for you from Genesis 1:26-31? Do ideas from the conversation between Eric and Kevin affect how you hear the familiar story this time?

5. What do you think it means to be created in the likeness of God? What does it say about God's relationship with us?

EPISODE TITLE: "Imago Dei"

Failing, Falling and Flying, Episode 1

Featured Guest: Kevin Miller

Despite dwelling on hell for far longer than most would recommend, filmmaker Kevin Miller maintains an optimistic outlook on life—and death. Originally from Foam Lake, Saskatchewan, Kevin always dreamed of being in the movie business but never actually believed he'd get there. So he's as surprised as anyone to go onto imdb.com and find all of those credits listed under his name. Some of Kevin's most recent projects include Hellbound?, spOILed, Sex+Money and With God On Our Side—not to mention a brief stint portraying Lex Luthor on Smallville.

Pneuma Divina Scripture: Genesis 1:26-31

26 Then God said, 'Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.'
27 So God created humankind in his image,
in the image of God he created them;
male and female he created them.
28 God blessed them, and God said to them, 'Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.' 29God said, 'See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. 30And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.' And it was so. 31God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.
