Questions:

1. What stood out for you from Luke 4:3-13? How do you think Jesus' experience in the desert might have prepared him to face these temptations?

2. How do you go about exploring a new direction in life?

3. What practices might help you focus your attention? How might that affect your decisions and actions?

4. If you didn't feel that you have to do or fix everything, what one thing would you work on at this point in your life? What do you feel drawn to?

5. How can grandiose plans and our desire for quick fixes get in the way of our true work and focus? Why do you think that happens? How might hovering help us avoid those temptations?

Pneuma Divina Scripture: Luke 4: 1-13

4 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, [2]where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. [3]The devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread.' [4]Jesus answered him, 'It is written, "One does not live by bread alone." '

[5] Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. [6]And the devil said to him, 'To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. [7]If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.' [8]Jesus answered him, 'It is written,
"Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him." '

[9] Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, 'If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, [10]for it is written,
"He will command his angels concerning you,
to protect you", [11]and
"On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone." '
[12]Jesus answered him, 'It is said, "Do not put the Lord your God to the test." '
[13]When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.
